

Within the 212 pages of Eternity in Their Hearts, by Don Richardson, story after story is told of incredible conversions to Christ. This book is truly one of the most exciting books I have ever read. Without even thinking about it, you will find yourself repeating to others the stories you've read. You can turn almost any conversation towards the things of God as these accounts are truly interesting. A great read!