

Christians and the church as a whole are drifting away from our dependence on Christ. We often think or accept the notion that Christ is not enough, that we must have Christ plus something else to be truly happy or successful. This issue is squarely addressed by one of the greatest Bible teachers of the past 20 years in Our Sufficiency in Christ by John MacArthur. You'll profit greatly from reading this book!